CHAIR – KIMBERLEE DI FEDE SULLIVAN, PEPPERDINE

Kimberlee received a Bachelor of Science in sports medicine from Pepperdine University, where she served Gamma Rho Chapter as the vice president/chapter development and collegiate chapter President. She furthered her education by earning a doctorate in physical therapy from Creighton University.

Kimberlee has served Tri Delta as the Enterprise Governance chair (2020–2024), Fraternity President (2016–2020), Executive Board Director (2014–2016) and the Center for Learning, Living, and Leading chair (2013–2015), and in many more collegiate volunteer positions.

Professionally, Kimberlee is a board-certified women's health clinical specialist and a physical therapist. In 2022, she joined Origin, the national provider of women's health physical therapy. Kimberlee leads the national clinical team, driving initiatives to enhance access to specialized care for patients in need. She serves on the Specialty Council for Women's Health, the Texas Physical Therapy Finance Committee, the South University Physical Therapy Board and the College of Health Care Professions Board.

An enthusiastic reader, avid runner and passionate traveler, Kimberlee has called Austin, Texas, home for over 20 years. She shares her life with her husband, Craig, daughter, Allison, and their dog, Witten.

ROSELLA GARCIA, TEXAS A&M

Rosella, the Senior Director of Strategic Outreach & Engagement at Albert Einstein College of Medicine, has over two decades of fundraising and friendraising experience. Prior to joining Einstein in 2022, she led Alumni Relations at Teachers College, Columbia University for 12 years. She also worked in alumni relations at NYU's Stern School of Business and Texas A&M University, as well as in MBA admissions for A&M and Rice universities.

Rosella has worked to galvanize communities through engagement events and lifelong-learning and networking programs. She has focused on volunteer leader development, fostering relationships with peer leaders, committees and boards. A true believer in the power of both spoken and written word to effect change, she earned her M.A. in communications and education from Teachers College and her B.A. in journalism from A&M. Committed to advancing diversity, equity, inclusion, access and belonging (DEIAB), she earned a Diversity and Inclusion certificate from Cornell University.

Rosella began her Tri Delta journey on the Volunteer Engagement Committee in 2020 and joined Tri Delta as an alumna initiate in 2023. She most recently served on the Extension Committee. A former trustee of the Foundation of National Student Nurses, Rosella loves to travel and is developing her photography skills.

MELISSA BOOTH HALL, CENTRE

Melissa joined Tri Delta through Beta Phi Chapter at Centre College where she earned a Bachelor of Arts in English, worked as a residence advisor for three years and served her chapter as vice president and president.

As an alumna, Melissa has served as a collegiate district officer, collegiate chapter coordinator, associate director for collegiate programs, member of Tri Delta's NPC delegation, chair of the Fraternity Membership Status Committee, Ritual Committee chair, facilitator, Trustee for Tri Delta's Foundation and Executive Board Director. She will begin her first term on Tri Delta's Leadership Cultivation and Selection Committee.

Professionally, Melissa holds a J.D. from Salmon P. Chase College of Law. After three years as a public defender, she left the paying workforce to work at home raising her sons, Robert and Daniel. She is now co-director for the Southern Foodways Alliance, a nonprofit based at the University of Mississippi that documents, studies and explores the diverse foodways of the changing American South.

ANN MARIE JOHNSON MCGEE, IDAHO

Ann Marie's career as a marketing professional included her own marketing agency specializing in early-stage technology companies and working for portable and wireless technology startups in Silicon Valley.

Before transitioning to technology, she taught music at Arkansas State and Interlochen Center for the Arts and was a member of the Arkansas Symphony. Ann Marie joined Tri Delta at the University of Idaho's Theta Tau Chapter. She graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in flute performance and earned a master's degree in music at the University of Illinois.

As a Tri Delta volunteer, Ann Marie serves on the Leadership Cultivation and Selection Committee for the current biennium. Past volunteer service has included the Volunteer Engagement Committee, chapter advisory team for Theta Tau, Ritual Committee, Alumnae Initiation chair, alumnae resource coordinator and alumnae specialist.

Ann Marie resides in Sonoma County, where she is a member of Impact 100 Redwood Circle, a 250-member women's giving circle and on the board for the Santa Rosa Symphony. She is also a board member and 2024–2025 Co-Chair for Philanos, a national women's giving circle network. Ann Marie enjoys exploring food and wine with her husband, Robert, gardening, playing her flute and tennis.

MELISSA STILL MILLER, COLORADO STATE

Melissa works as a Change Management consultant, supporting companies across a variety of industries as they implement strategic transformations. She is passionate about the impacts to people and enjoys utilizing design thinking concepts and her experience in product management and user experience. Melissa received her MBA from the University of Denver and earned both a B.S. and a B.A. from Colorado State University.

While attending Colorado State, Melissa joined Tri Delta. As a collegian, she served as chapter president, Panhellenic president and Leadership Development Committee (now LCSC) collegiate member. Melissa worked as a Tri Delta consultant and has served as a volunteer in a variety of capacities from facilitating programs and conferences to supporting chapters as a Panhellenic coordinator and NPC area advisor.

Melissa lives in Denver, Colorado, with her husband and two children. She enjoys traveling, spending time with friends and family, and staying active in Colorado.

REBECCA BRAMLETT MORIARTY, MISSISSIPPI STATE

Rebecca earned her bachelor's degree at Mississippi State University and her Master of Legal Studies at the University of Mississippi. She is thrilled and honored to serve on the Leadership Cultivation and Selection Committee. Rebecca previously served as the alumna advisor to Delta Psi Chapter at Rhodes College for six years and most recently served as a collegiate chapter specialist for Delta Rho Chapter at the University of Kentucky, Beta Phi Chapter at Centre College and Beta Zeta Chapter at Transylvania University. She also serves on the board of the Nashville Alumnae Chapter.

Professionally, Rebecca has primarily worked in community engagement and entrepreneurship education. She was a fellow at the McLean Institute where she developed programming throughout the Mississippi Delta region. She has worked with nonprofits such as the Memphis Bioworks Foundation and the American Small Business Development Center. Currently, Rebecca is a director for BBYO, the world's largest Jewish youth organization. She also serves as the communications chair for the National Guard Association Auxiliary and volunteers with several organizations serving the LGBTQ+ community.

Rebecca lives in Nashville, Tennessee, where she spends her free time with her wife, Kealy, their dog, Jolene, and their cat, Pete.

MICHELLE PATRICK, MILLIKIN

Michelle is a communications manager for Turnitin, supporting the edtech company's global product launches, business initiatives and thought leadership efforts. Prior to her time at Turnitin, she held marketing communications roles with increasing responsibility at DePaul University, Grant Thornton, Wells Fargo, GE and G&S Business Communications.

She joined the Fraternity at Millikin University, where she graduated with a Bachelor of Arts. Michelle also holds a Master of Arts from DePaul University. She has served the organization in a variety of ways since graduation, including traveling as a Tri Delta consultant and volunteering as a financial specialist and a facilitator for BodyImage3D, the American Association of University Women salary negotiation workshop and numerous leadership conferences.

Michelle lives in the southwest suburbs of Chicago with her fiancé and two rescue dogs. In her spare time, you can find her reading, watching reality TV or renovating their 120-year-old home.

SIMI WILHELM SHAH, OTTAWA

Simi Wilhelm Shah is a founding member and president of Canada Delta Chapter at the University of Ottawa. She went on to travel as a Tri Delta consultant during the founding of Gamma Sigma Chapter at Colgate University, served as the collegiate district officer for Alpha Alpha Chapter at Adelphi University, Gamma Gamma Chapter at Dartmouth College and Alpha Chapter at Boston University, and worked as the house director at Psi Chapter while doing her graduate work in higher education and business at the University of Pennsylvania. She has also served as the alumnae chapter president in London and as the chair of Fraternity Membership Status Committee.

Currently living in London, she is the Economic Director of the City of London Corporation. She is married to Nimit and they have two daughters, ages 12 and 16. Her other true loves include Haribo and badly filmed property shows.

SABUR WOLDU, TEXAS/DALLAS

Sabur received her bachelor's degree from the University of Texas at Dallas, where she served as Epsilon Theta Chapter social chair and chapter president. After graduation, she went on to travel as a Tri Delta consultant for a year and is currently the alumna advisor for Alpha Omicron Chapter at Duke University. Sabur works in Global Recruiting at Bain and Company and lives in New York with her fiance and her puppy, Ella.
